City Trustees Meet in Regular Session

It was 10:30 when the city trustees adjourned last Tuesday night. It was a very busy three-hour session. All the members, except Trustee A. P. Fraser, were present, and the meeting was presided over by Trustee G. F. Beardsley.

Also in attendance at the meeting were City Attorney H. G. Jorgensen, present in an advisory [illegible] City Treasurer L. S. Slevin, and Marshal Englund.

In the absence of J. E. Nichols, Trustee Peter Taylor acted as clerk.

Many communications were read, among the matters being written about were property affairs, official grade, pipe laying, ordinances, etc.

The City Attorney was requested to prepare various new ordinances.

The Carmel City Hall will be located, for a year at least, in the Wilson Building, at a monthly rental of $17.33.

Ordinances Nos. 6, 7, 8, and 9 were passed to print, and will be published in the Pine Cone of February 15.

The Board meets again next Tuesday.

Legislature Likely To Pass Road Project

Colonel E. A. Preble, who is about to resume his residence on the Monterey peninsula, is an enthusiastic worker for the Coast Scenic Road. He is making effective use of his extensive acquaintance among influential men and strong organizations to promote the interest of this much-desired [illegible] way from Carmel-by-the-Sea to San Simeon, an appropriation of $350,000 for which is provided in a bill introduced in the Legislature by Senator E. S. Rigdon.

The Colonel has interested a number of members of the Legislature in the proposition, and has succeeded in obtaining the support of several powerful organizations.

Reports from other sources indicate that the Legislature will vote favorably on this much-desired public improvement, and the Governor-to-be, Stephens, is a "good roads and more roads" man.

Baconians, To the Rescue!

Dr. Charles W. Wallace, Professor of English of the University of Nebraska, is visiting his brother, Grant Wallace, in San Francisco.

Professor Wallace has spent many years searching through British archives for light on Shakespeare, and has brought forth letters and documents which upset entirely the theory of the Baconians and shed so much new light on the Bard of Avon that his biographies will have to be revised and rewritten.

All Should Honor the Birthday of Lincoln

Next Monday, February 12, we honor the name of the preserver of the nation, for on this day, 108 years ago, President Lincoln was born at the humble Rock Springs farm in Hardin county, Kentucky. The story of that self-built, self-directed career is familiar to every native-born citizen and to a large proportion of foreigners, for Lincoln's influence is for all times and for all peoples of the world; he is one of the handful of men who have lived for humanity as [illegible] had [illegible] he was no special opportunities for elevating himself to this position, only those which come to the most humble man and woman. He had less than one year's schooling and only a half-dozen books to read in his boyhood, yet the thoroughness with which he availed himself of these small blessings laid the foundations for that thoroughness and efficiency which was the keynote of his whole life.

Among the outstanding qualities of the man none was more significant than his physical strength, fearlessness of utterance, scrupulous honesty, and wonderful sincerity. These were the qualities which built up one of the greatest figures of human interest.

Abraham's father, Thomas Lincoln, was a carpenter; it was, however, through his mother, Nancy Hanks, that his fine qualities came. He married Mary Todd in 1842, at Springfield, Illinois, was nominated President for the first time in May, 1860, signed the famous proclamation of emancipation in January, 1863, began his second term as President in March, 1865, and brought the war to a close in the same year. He was assassinated in Ford's Theater, at Washington, on April 14, 1865.

CLUB NOTES

By Miss I. A. Johnson

The Young Men's Club had their usual monthly social on Saturday evening. The new games proved interesting and popular.

The Boy's Club had a busy time on Monday, as there was election of officers, after which the boys adjourned to Arts and Crafts hall for a rehearsal of two scenes from Nicholas Nickleby, in which they take part tomorrow evening. They returned to the clubroom and had the usual refreshments.

Thanks to the generosity of Dr. D. C. Gardner, we have been able to purchase a number of games, and an unexpected interest has developed in chess and checkers. Before long the veteran players here will find foeman worthy of their steel.

The following were elected to serve three months: Andrew Gillett, president; Kenneth Goold, vice-president; Thomas Gillett, secretary.

ORIGIN OF A LINCOLN PHRASE.

In a big New York church recently the pastor, people, and a group of veterans, observed the fifty-third recurrence of the date of Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, says the New York World. In coincidence with the anniversary occasion, attention is called to the origin of the phrase in that address concerning "government of the people, by the people, for the people." Dr. Frank H. Vizetelly, a scholar of extensive research among literary monuments of the past, has discovered this form of words in Wycliffe's preface to the translation of the Bible which he published somewhere between the years 1380 and 1384. "The Bible," wrote the doctor, "is for the government of the people, by the people, and for the people." Lincoln may or may not have heard of this passage. It makes little difference save as a matter of curiosity. The Wycliffe utterance has had to be dug out of antiquity to reach the popular eye. The phrase spoken at Gettysburg in 1863 rang with the note of a living hour. It has continued to ring ever since, and it will carry the living word so long as words endure. The phrase belongs to the man who gave it immortality.

Red Cross Chapter Gets Instructions

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—
Mrs. Mabel Slevin, Secretary Carmel-by-the-Sea Red Cross Chapter:

In view of present events and possible developments, central committee desires each chapter immediately to make adequate preparation to carry out the work for which the Red Cross is chartered by Congress.

Call meeting of executive committee at once, make tentative arrangements, capable of quick completion, for roomy, centrally located headquarters, rent free, and equipment for same, if not already provided.

Appoint following committees: Finance, Hospital, Garments and Surgical Supplies, Comfort Bags, Shipping, Publicity and Information, Motor Service. Appoint committee on cooperation with outside organizations, which should begin work at once. File names and addresses of all volunteers, assigning them as far as possible in above committees. If not already done, appoint committee on Education.

For information concerning courses of instruction for lay women inquire of Bureau of Nursing Service, Washington; for graduate nurses, the same bureau. Doctors volunteering should be referred to Washington; men wishing to volunteer should take first aid courses, and the possibility of organizing sanitary training detachments should be taken up at once.

Present to the public the vital importance of large supporting chapter membership and appoint special committee to conduct aggressive membership enrollment. Detailed instructions will be sent as needs develop.

The Central Committee asks prompt acknowledgement by letter or telegram of these instructions, giving outline of your preparations. Call freely on headquarters for full cooperation, since the Central Committee realizing the opportunity of service to the country, bespeak every effort for complete and thorough organization for possible needs.

Give this telegram full publicity in all papers.

WEEKLY GREETING

There is a courtesy of the heart. It is allied to love. From it springs the purest courtesy in the outward behavior.—Goethe.

Beginning Early

The progressive movement within the Republican party with which the public is now becoming acquainted means a nation-wide contest to capture the party organization and the control of the Republican national convention in 1920.

The movement will assume definite shape at meeting to be held in Chicago next month. An energetic campaign for the next three years and a half will be inaugurated. There will be congressional, senatorial and gubernatorial elections two years hence, and efforts to nominate and elect progressive Republicans will be made.

Sometimes a "knock's a boost," as the saying goes. But knocking, to be of any real value, has to be done scientifically and intelligently. The worst citizen is the one who knocks everything indiscriminately, keeping his eyes blind to the really good things of the community.

Those who were born in the month of February share a distinction with Washington, Lincoln, Dickens, Longfellow, Mendelssohn, James Russell Lowell, Voltaire, and many other of the world's illustrious ones.

You who read this: If you have a friend in the California Legislature, write him, requesting his support for the completion of the Coast highway from Carmel-by-the-Sea to San Luis Obispo.

Open-air class periods will be inaugurated this week by Miss Etta Tilton's grade of the public school.

INSTANT ACTION SURPRISES MANY HERE

This grocer's story surprises local people: "I had bad stomach trouble. All food seemed to sour and form gas. Was always constipated. Nothing helped me until I tried buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. ONE SPOONFUL astonished me with its INSTANT action." Because Adler-i-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold

PERSONAL ITEMS

S. Darling and wife arrived from San Jose last week, and will occupy their cottage here for a while.

Tina Learner and her talented husband, now in Honolulu, will be here in May, and remain in Carmel until September.

John Morrison, who used to reside above the real estate office in the Wilson building, now lives in the small Pepper cottage.

Miss Hannah B. Baldwin, who was an acquaintance of a number of folks here, died at Los Angeles on January 18.

Mrs. von Emde, with her mother, two children, and a maid, will be here from Berkeley about May 15, to remain several months. The Newberry house has been rented.

The Jeffers—Mr. and Mrs., the twins, and "Billy"—now at Pasadena, will spend about six months here [illegible]

The Tilton house has been engaged from May 1 for a number of months by our Redlands friends, the Willards.

Douglas Greeley has a position with the State Highway Commission. He is in a surveying party working out of Sacramento.

Mr. Michael Williams and family have given up their residence in San Francisco, and have re-established their home here, on the Eighty-acre tract.

J. F. Devendorf and his daugter, Edwina, went to the city Saturday. The former has returned.

Rev. Walter Moffat is now occupying The Needles, where he will be pleased to receive callers.

Mrs. M. J. Thomas writes from Berkeley that she hopes to occupy her cottage here in May, and to have as guests Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Newhall and Miss Newhall.

Mrs. Haskell, who during her several months' residence here has endeared herself to many of the townsfolks, has departed for San Francisco.

NEWS NOTES

Last week 250 cattle were brought from Santa Barbara by rail and were driven to Russell Bros. leased land for pasturage.

Next Wednesday is Valentine Day, and the day following is the eighteenth anniversary of the destruction of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor.

Lincoln Memorial University at Cumberland Gap, Tenn., will celebrate its twentieth anniversary on February 12, with exercises in honor of Abraham Lincoln. Speeches will be made by the governors of Massachusetts, Virginia, Kenucky, and Tennessee.

"Smiling" Ben Leidig has disposed of his stock of groceries to Leidig Bros. Incorporated, and will resume his old place in the hardware department.

Mrs. R. J. DeYoe will locate her real estate and renting office in a building which will move to the lot next to the Storie building.

The Southern Pacific contemplates doubling its tracks from San Jose to Del Monte Junction. This will result in more frequent and faster service.

Remember Nellita Choate, who played here in "Simoom?" Well, this capable young woman has been selected to enact the leading feminine role in Galsworthy's "Justice," to be presented at Stanford.

Beginning next Wednesday, February 14, Carmel Library will be open Wednesday evenings, from 7 to 9, for reading and the circulation of books.

The Postoffice will keep Sunday hours on Monday next, Lincoln's birthday. There will be exercises at the public school.

Next week's moving picture show will be given on Wednesday evening, as the theatre will be occupied with the ball masque on Saturday evening.

St. Anne's Guild meets tomorrow afternoon at Mrs. DeYoe's office.

AMEN! TO THIS, LOCAL MERCHANT.

Writes Walt Mason in the San Francisco Chronicle:

I do not wish to buy your book, oh, agent at the door; I do not need a shepherd's crook, no salve to heal a sore. And if I did I'd hie me down along the village street, and buy of men who boost the town, pay taxes, and repeat. I took a ride the other day, in my new pasteboard car, and saw, along the right of way, men toiling, near and far. They're building up a thoroughfare in which we take much pride, and soon like streaks of lightning there our motor cars will glide. They're grading down the steeper hills, and bridging creeks and draws; and who is paying up the bill? Who is the Santa Claus? The agent from some parts unknown, the smiling gent like you, was never known to cough a bone, to put such projects through. The local business men must bear such burdens on their backs; they pay for bridge and thoroughfare when they dig up their tax. And so when I am needing prunes the merchants of this grad will get my hard-earned picayunes, yet bet your lid, my lad. So to the place from which you came, oh, agent smooth, return! I do not need your quilting frame, nor patent duplex churn.

Ish't This Nice?

(Pacific Grove Review)

The Carmel Pine Cone is prancing on its two hind feet as a two-year-old. Two—goin' on three today. It is a happy, energetic and wide-awake little newspaper, and Bro. Overstreet is to be congratulated upon his enterprise and the apparent success he is meeting in the conduct of his undertaking; and, by the way, the people of Carmel should come in for a bit of congratulation on having such a good editor and paper "in their midst."
